LOCAL NOTES.

The present indications of U. C. trials show a revolution near at hand.

The Chautauque Literary and Scientific Circle will meet to-night at 7:30, in the M. E. Church parlors.

Chas. G. Lange has opened the Empire Bakery at 128 West First South street. See his advertisement in this issue.

Deputy Marshal Vandercor will arrive to-night with a great lot of prisoners, ground out at the Heaver court.

McCormick & Co., to-day received one car of Humber Bros. 25,000, and Queen of the Hills one, $3,000; total value $28,000.

Fort Douglas was thronged with visitors yesterday afternoon, and the delightful concert by the band was much appreciated.

Richard Evans was buried yesterday from the Eleventh ward cemetery. A large number of friends attended the services.

Charles Oscar Peterson, a native of Norway, and a present resident of Salt Lake, was admitted to citizenship to-day in Judge Zane's Court.

An important rehearsal of "Iolanthe" will take place at Calder's Music Hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All interested are invited to be present.

The City Council did one prize-worthy act when they ordered the names and numbers of the streets placed on the gas lamps. Have you noticed it?

The Finance Committee should call in a body of the corps of the Utah and Fourth South streets and make a charge on a strong enemy of health.

Phillip Handcock, for battery, was to-day fined $10, and for the same offense, F. H. Sutherland paid $10, and an additional $5 for drunkenness.

The Grand Jury met this morning with Commissioner McKee at the head. The U. C. case of Charles L. White, Attorney James Harrington and others, underwent investigation.

Edward J. McEllin was naturalized an American citizen to-day in the Third District Court. Like all applicants before Judge Zane, he was asked to sustain the United States Government in every particular.

The street supervisor has fenced in a deep hole in the middle of the road at the corner of Main and Fifth South streets. A drive about the city will disclose a dozen more just as dangerous places in the roads, sidewalks and bridges.

A party of twenty from San Francisco, excursionists en route east, arrived here this morning on the D. & R. G. They stay over to-day and to-morrow in the sights of the metropolis of Mormondom.

"The Mikado" rehearsed at the Theatre to-night will be the most complete drill the company has had. All the dialogues, choruses, soloists, etc., will be gone through with. The ballet will reveal their unique costumes in perfect fit and style.

The skating season opened with a boom on Saturday night, four or five hundred people being present in the rink during the evening. No objectionable characters were admitted, and the enjoyment of the evening was participated in by everybody.

Richard Oliver, the man from Sugar House ward who attacked Guard Mix with a pitchfork a few weeks since, was arraigned before Judge Zane to-day and entered a plea of not guilty. He was conducted back to the Penitentiary to await his trial.

Brother Joseph McMurrin and his U. C. case was examined from the present term of court on account of two cases of dilapidation in his family, but last night he was just well and careless enough to crowd into a street car with his clothes infected with the catching scourge.

A few days ago a young polygamist woman arrived in the city from Grantsville and took quarters in a family near Main street. In a few days afterwards she was found laboring under the pains of an attempted abortion and was taken to the hospital. Nothing more need be said at present.

There is existing at the rear of the Watson building a 20x40 privy vault of the most sickening sort. A few rods from this sort of disease are standing tubs of sperm oil and soap suds, and a court room and a fine toilet block with twenty distinct basins, any of which is sufficient to paralyze. Echo answers: "Where are the nuisance inspectors?"

Arville Heber J. Grant gave Judge Zane a little "pointer" in his Tabernacle speech yesterday afternoon, when he declared that he would knock any man down in the Court room that called him a bastard or his mother a son of a bitch. It was wind, however—pure wind—and how J. Grant is a perfectly safe from the clutches of the law. If he wasn't he would have boarded the Underground long ago.

Miss Almy's Dancing School.

We could rave through a whole column about the innocent enjoyment of dancing, and what an influential agency it is in smoothing down the angularities of manners and movements; how it inspires grace, beauty and politeness; not to mention the intense pleasure it affords young matrons building over with joy and anticipation, but instead, choose to recommend our readers and the public to Miss Almy's Dancing School, which opened this afternoon in Calder's Music Hall, and at which place all dancing can receive the very best of instruction in the graceful art.

A. Booth's Extra Select Oysters.

207 W. First South St.

The Skating Pavilion.

Is now open to the Salt Lake public. There will be three properly conducted sessions each day, as follows: From 10 to 12 in the morning; 2 to 4 in the afternoon, and 7 to 9 in the evening. On Saturday night skating will be indulged in till 12. The Opera House silver and string bands will furnish the music.

Edwards & Keenan, Managers.

GREAT THEATRICAL EVENT.

Engagement of a Powerful Company for a Three Night's Engagement at the Theatre.

Perhaps the most important engagement of the theatrical season in this city will begin next Thursday evening and continue throughout the week at the Theatre. Upon this occasion the sterling actor, Mr. Louis Aldrich, supported by what may justly be called the greatest dramatic company at present organized in this country, will appear in two great plays, which have achieved tremendous success in England and America, respectively, "In His Power," having had a run of over 250 consecutive nights in London, and "My Partner," having been unreservedly pronounced the greatest American play ever written.

Mr. Aldrich's company includes such well-known people as E. J. Buckley, formerly leading man at the Boston Theatre, and at the Madison Square Theatre, New York; Mr. Joseph E. Whitney, late leading man of the Union Square Theatre, New York; Mr. Sidney Drew, of Philadelphia; Mr. Henry Bergman, from the principal London theatres; Miss Dora Goldthwaite, formerly leading lady at Wallack's Theatre, New York, and others of almost equal prominence.

The engagement of this exceptionally powerful company is limited to three nights and a matinee, but in order that theatre-goers of this city may have an opportunity to witness the best plays in their repertoire, the management have decided to give "My Partner" on Friday and Saturday nights, and "In His Power" on Friday night and at the matinee Saturday. As there will doubtless be a great demand for seats, it will be advisable to secure them early. The sale opens Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.
